

DATE	EVENT
Thursdays: 27th November and 18th December 10.00-12.00 Ages 0-4 FREE	Preschool group, Penn Road Children's Centre, Slough – Come and join in the fun with other families. Younger siblings are also welcome to come along too. The sessions involve a story, music, playing, craft, and snack time. There is also an outdoor space we can use if the weather is dry. It is an opportunity for parents to chat to other parents and for children to enjoy playing together
Saturday 6th December 10-3pm	Think Right, Feel Good, Reading. – This is for secondary school age students. Please ask your child's QTVI if interested in attending. Booking is via the Sensory Consortium Service only.
Saturday 13th December Touch tour: 12.30 Performance: 2.30 (audio description available) Funding for BV members and siblings. 1 carer per member is free. £30 per ticket for any other adults. Please note: we are trying to get some additional funding for this event.	The Little Mermaid, Watermill theatre, Newbury. We have the opportunity to have a touch tour prior to the performance to explore props and the stage. The story: Far beyond the Cornish coast, deep beneath the rolling waves lies the magical kingdom of the Seafolk. Merryn, daughter of the Sea King, eagerly awaits her birthday – the day she sees the world above the surface for the very first time. Drawn towards a fishing boat and longing to discover more, Merryn is captivated by a world of twinkling lights and the charm of the Landfolk's song. When a sudden storm strikes, she saves Cadan, a young fisherman who is thrown overboard. But, whilst Merryn's been away, her home has been thrown into turmoil, and her younger brother is missing. Heartbroken, Merryn must choose whether to take a perilous bargain, risking everything to protect those she loves. This magical new Watermill production of The Little Mermaid weaves together salty sea air, folk and sea shanty inspired songs, conjuring an ethereal world below the waves for this festive season Please note: Transport available for those in Reading or West Berkshire only but if you can make your own way there, you are welcome to join us if you live in East Berkshire!
Tuesday 16th December Touch tour: 6.30 Performance: 7.30 (Audio description available) Age: 6+	The Christmas Carol, Reading Rep theatre. There's magic in the air – everywhere except the Huntley and Palmers Biscuit Factory, where Ebenezer Scrooge remains as bitter as ever. But when the ghosts of Christmas Past, Present, and Yet to Come pay him a visit, will Scrooge finally discover the true meaning of the season? Step into Victorian Reading for a heartwarming journey of redemption, wonder, and joy. Featuring beloved characters and brimming with Dickensian charm, A Christmas Carol is the perfect festive treat for the whole family.

Funding for BV members and siblings. £19 for parent/carers	Please note: No BV minibus transport is available for this event. You will have to make your own way there. There is plenty of parking. If using public transport, the buses that stop here are: 4, 13, 14, 17, 702, 913, x4. Please note: we are also trying to get some additional funding for this event.
Saturday 20 th Dec 4-6pm Ages: 13+	Teens social: Make something! Midleton House, Reading: come and join in the fun catching up with Berkshire Vision friends and making a present for someone. More details to follow.
Monday 22 nd Dec: 11-2pm £5 per family All ages	Thames Valley Adventure Park, Taplow, Maidenhead. We will again have exclusive use of this safe, self-contained family friendly adventure park with plenty of parking on site. There is Crazy golf, accessible play area with a zip wire, a fort, outdoor table tennis, and bikes to ride on in an allotted area. We will also run craft sessions inside. Transport is available.
Tuesday 23 rd Dec: 11-1pm FREE All ages	Indoor heated swimming pool, Come and join us for a fun session. Parents/carers need to go in the pool with any non-swimmers or any child under 5. Transport is available.
Monday 29 th Dec: 1.30-2.45pm £6 per person skating All ages	Ice skating, Oxford Ice Rink, Oxford. Come for a SEN session at Oxford Rink with reduced numbers, quieter music and plenty of support to help skaters enjoy the sport! Skates, skating aids and helmets are included in the reduced fees. Please note: no BV transport is available as the rink is near the Oxford Railway station and easier to reach by train.
Tuesday 30 th December FREE All ages	Synergy Dance, Reading area. inclusive dance and yoga enrichment sessions designed for children and young people with vision impairment and their siblings. Transport is available.