

Transition to Adulthood

A webinar to help young people with deafness / hearing loss and VI, and their parents, consider their future and any support they may need when they move on from Year 13.

Considering university? ...want to go into employment..start an apprenticeship?trying to persuade your parents you should take a gap year?

This webinar will hopefully answer all your questions so that you can confidently take your next steps!

Date:

Thursday, 11th June 2026

Time:

Join from 5.45pm for a 6pm start

Venue:

Online Webinar

Age: For Year 12 students in mainstream schools and colleges and their parents

Cost:
FREE

How to book:

To book your space, complete the google form by Monday 8th June 2026 - click here
We will send the meeting link ahead of the webinar.

We are delighted to have Callum Russell from CrystalEyes to lead this webinar again this year.

Callum specialises in offering training, advice and guidance to organisations and to individuals with visual impairment to ensure they fulfil their potential. However his advice is equally relevant to students with hearing loss.

For further information:
<https://crystaleyes.me/>

