

Town Hall, Zone F, St Ives Road, Maidenhead, SL6 1RF

Transition to Adulthood: Resources

What Does this Mean?

Children and young people preparing for their lives after compulsory education and making decisions for their future.

Implications for Learning

Children and young people need to prepare for their lives after compulsory education. This might include preparing for further study, employment or for children and young people with complex needs, identifying the most appropriate settings for them to transition into.

General resources for students with VI moving into adulthood

RNIB Transition Guide information RNIB Transition Guide

Careers Education Information Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) and Transitions in Focus: A guide to support vision impaired children and young people available CEIAG

Organisations supporting students with VI:

RNIB

Thomas Pocklington Trust

LOOK

Blind in Business

Resources specific to each local authority in Berkshire

Specific information for students preparing for adulthood in each local authority can be found in the Local Offer.

RBWM

Slough

Bracknell

Wokingham

Reading

West Berks

There is also a central Berkshire wide hub for advice for students who are in or are approaching Year 11 and beyond where they have centralised links to resources, advice and contacts for courses, apprenticeships and other ways into work including those students with SEND. See Berkshire opportunities